Weekday Church Schools Will Be Extended

With the recent re-election of John W. Yates as president of the Church Federation of Los Angeles, plans have been revealed for an expanded program of released time religious instruction for public school pupils.

By JOHN W. YATES

Yates, prominent Methodist layman and insurance company executive, now serving his second year as president of the inter-denominational body, stated that the Church Federation hopes to operate a Weekday Church Schools for pupils of 100 elementary schools and ten junior high schools during the coming school year.

Last year, he said, the Federation served 66 elementary schools. The entire program of released time religious education, in which Jewish and Catholic groups are also participating, is undertaken in cooperation with the Los Angeles City Board of Education. Public school pupils are released for 40 minutes each week to attend the church schools, which are located near public school premises. Written consent of their parents, however, is requisite to attendance.

Yates also stated that the Federation will continue its Youth Project work and counseling service for youth, both of which are supported by War Chest funds, as well as its community educational program in behalf of Christian race relations and world order.

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson on "Life" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from Luke and reads, "Now that the dead are raised, even Moses said at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him." The Lesson-Sermon includes this selection from Mark: "Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves; and he was transfigured before them. . . . And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus. And Peter . . . said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: . . . And there was a cloud that overshadowed them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him."

Plans Made for L. A. Convention of Churches

Plans are now being completed by local residents for participation as delegates in the 57th annual state convention of Christian churches, set for July 24-29.

By DR. RALPH W. SOCKMAN

in Los Angeles at the Wilshire Christian Church. Dr. Ralph W. Sockman of New York, minister of Christ Church (Methodist) and conductor of the National Radio Pulpit of NBC, will deliver the keynote address. He will also deliver an address each day during the convention.

Other distinguished speakers will include Dr. S. Guy Inman, formerly director of the People's Institution in Mexico, who at one time assisted Cordell Hull in the development of inter-American understanding of good neighbor policy; Ned Roberts, missionary to Africa, and William T. Pearcey, a layman, treasurer of the denomination's board of church extension.

All members of Christian churches, of which there are 130 in Southern California, are eligible to attend the convention and vote, according to Dr. Clifford A. Cole, executive secretary for this area. The denomination, which is sometimes known as the Disciples of Christ, ranks fifth in size nationally among Protestant bodies.

Christian Science Service Center In New Quarters

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Torrance is one of more than sixty-five Christian Science Churches sponsoring the Christian Science Service Center of Los Angeles County. The Center has recently moved into its new quarters at 725 N. Alameda st., opposite the Union Station. It was thrown open to the public for two days which attracted a throng of more than 2,000 persons and many expressions of commendation were made for the commodious and artistic appointments.

A large private patio with comfortable garden furniture, banked with flowers, trees, and shrubs, adjoins a two-story brick building of early California architecture where shower, coats, books, magazines, games, radio, telephone, piano, and other home comforts are available. The center is especially adapted to accommodate uniformed servicemen and women of all rank and denomination who have but a few hours between trains, with a restful place where they may visit with relatives and friends in a private and quiet atmosphere unobtainable in the crowded railway and bus stations.

Its location directly opposite the Union Station will be of growing usefulness as more and more troops pass through the city on their way to and from the Pacific battle stations. Of the Christian Science Service Centers maintained throughout the world, five are located in California.
